

Call for Papers

Second Annual Workshop on Sanctions

May 27th, 2025

Vienna University of Economics and Business - Vienna, Austria

We invite submissions for the Second Annual Workshop on Sanctions at the Vienna University of Economics and Business in Vienna, Austria. This event aims to bring together leading scholars and experts from economics, political science, and related disciplines to explore the evolving dynamics of sanctions. Discussions will address key theoretical, empirical, and policy-relevant issues shaping the future of sanctions.

Topics of interest include, but are not limited to:

- Theory and Mechanisms of Sanctions
- Economic and Political Impact of Sanctions
- Sectoral and Regional Impact of Sanctions
- Sanctions in a Globalized Economy
- Intersectionality of Sanctions and Other Policies

The workshop is jointly organized by the Vienna University of Economics and Business, Austrian Institute of Economic Research(WIFO), the Center for Global Policy Analysis at Drexel University and HTWG Konstanz, generously sponsored by the Anniversary Fund of the Austrian National Bank.

Scientific committee:

Gabriel Felbermayr(WIFO & WU Vienna), Yoto V. Yotov(Drexel University & ifo institute), Constantinos Syropoulos(Drexel University), Erdal Yalcin(HTWG Konstanz), Ohyun Kwon(Drexel University) .

Submission Details:

- Deadline: February 28, 2025
- Email Submissions to: sanctions@wifo.ac.at
- Notification of acceptance will be sent by March 15, 2025.

We look forward to receiving your submissions and welcoming you to Vienna!